Caption : Remmers provide 'comfort' for Levi

Using Remmers polyurethane comfort floors and an artistic design, installers have delivered a bespoke 'concrete look' floor for retailer Levi in Carnaby Street, London.

The floor offers a seamless, weld free finish unlike sheet or tile floors and is fully bonded to the subfloor to offer excellent durability.

This floor can be provided in any colour or combination of colours and is available in gloss or matt finish in a smooth or textured finish.

Expect to see a lot more of this!
