

The Future of Industrial Resin Flooring

Resdev – Exporting the Experts!

Jack Longden

Resdev are pleased to announce the formulation of the ideal combination of experience and enthusiasm to provide the complete Export Sales Team package.

With over 36 years in the resin flooring industry, Jack Longden has worked throughout the world including Europe, India, The Far East and Dubai and has applied Resdev's epoxy and polyurethane resin flooring systems since the Company's inception in 1979.

Employed in resin manufacturing and also self-employed, Jack has built an unequalled reputation as a multi-skilled Export Manager with hands-on site knowledge as a floorlayer and site supervisor in addition to his technical support background.

Alongside Jack is Joe Cox who brings business management qualifications, administration and communication dexterity to the role of Export Clerk.

Joe Cox

Joe is office based and the first point of contact for the Export Sales Team with responsibility for freight and all documentation ensuring the safe and efficient despatch of your order to its destination.

Jack and Joe are supported by the Resdev Sales and Technical Teams to ensure that the needs of the customer are met regardless of whereabouts in the world they are.
