SENSO

Senso is the fast growing international supplier of cast resin flooring. Established in 2007 in Holland where the market for synthetic flooring exploded we take great pride in the quality of our installations, our integrity and customer care. Our focus is on taking resin flooring from its industrial and sports flooring roots into new markets with residential, retail and commercial installations, always offering a new level of quality.

We install floors upwards of 1m2 using our own bio-polymer products and the very best craftsmen in the industry. A Sensofloor is seamless, easy to clean, extremely durable and available in any colour or colour combination. We can create bespoke floor and wall finishes with our Freeze™ technology, unlocking the limitless possibilities that resin flooring offers. All of our work carries a full Guarantee. Our showroom in London was the former headquarters of Richard Branson and Virgin Records and exhibits over 1000m2 of exceptional quality resin floor. Please come and see us.
